

Soft Skills in Hard Negotiations

Shanghai 28-29-30 June and 6-7-8 December 2017

Beijing 27-28-29 September – Wuhan 29-30-31 March 2017

Learning Goals

By the end of this module, participants will be able to

- Align the negotiation execution with the negotiation preparation
- Assess one's own negotiation reflexes and control these reflexes
- Identify the right tactic for each negotiation point
- Read the counterpart's tactics and respond to it
- Recognise the variety of negotiation styles
- Switch negotiation style and behaviours during the face-to-face negotiations
- Recognise and learn to manage the intercultural component in negotiations
- Improve self-management through better self-awareness
- Initiate a change in negotiation deadlocks.
- Optimise preparation for the negotiation (psychological, technical, etc.)

Methods and Tools

- Highly interactive environment
- Balance of theory and practical exercises
- Intercultural model to assess one's tendencies and ability to adjust
- DISC® (personality indicator)
- Group analysis of case studies
- Simulations and role plays

Target Group

- Key Commodity Managers, International Sourcing Officers, Senior Buyers, Sourcing Quality Assurance Engineers

Duration

- 3 days

Training location

- Shanghai Beijing Wuhan - China

Soft Skills in Hard Negotiations

Shanghai 28-29-30 June and 6-7-8 December 2017

Beijing 27-28-29 September – Wuhan 29-30-31 March 2017

Phase Content

Day 1

- Identification of internal negotiating challenges
- Prepare your own case
- DISC® Behavioural Analysis: Identifying your personal communication profile
- Analysis of your style, the resulting benefits and drawbacks, how to adjust
- Communicating/negotiating across styles

Day 2

- Learn several key theories of cross cultural difference
- Practice by applying these theories to different instances of business communication & negotiations
- Targeting cultural tendencies: a "roadmap" for negotiating in country X
- Review key negotiation phases
- Role play of each phase with intensive individual feedback

Day 3

- Defining a negotiation strategy: Order of presentation of clauses
- Making and answering objections
- Solutions to deadlock
- Learning how to best close the deal
- Sharing best practices
- What are the take-away?
- Establishing a personal "action plan" for optimising soft skills in an intercultural environment.
- Role-play of each phase with intensive individual feedback.

Credits for

Expert Buyers Certification Programme